

Canada Is In Trouble!

Much more than ever before, Canada is in need of true patriots, those who believe in and will make a stand for traditional values. Those who will get active and join together as one to take back this country while there is still time.

The left continues to impose changes to the very fabric of what Canada has always been and is. They have now changed the Canadian anthem!

In spite of countless warnings, much of the public in Canada continues to be complacent about so many issues. Change after change is arbitrarily being forced down the throats of those who support fundamental values.

The consensus from Canadians who claim to know 'what's best for us' is to condemn the very concept of listing our values. They would never think of daring to ask newcomers to honor, respect or follow these values or traditions.

Trudeau thinks it is controversial. He says that Canada is not what many Canadians value or understand and respect as foundational, fundamental values.

Justin Trudeau told the New York Times that Canada is now turning into a new kind of country, assuring them that there is nothing special about Canadian history or traditions.

Trudeau seems embarrassed, even ashamed of our Western culture and values - although he is known to speak up for Quebec.

Like Obama, when travelling to other countries, he would apologize for the USA. Trudeau frequently apologizes for Canada instead of standing up for our values.

Trudeau has no issue with speaking at a segregated mosque, where women and girls are forbidden from entering through the front door, and not allowed to sit in the main hall,. Yet he claims to be a feminist!

In reality, Trudeau will say whatever he thinks will give him applause or to cover up his actions as long as it suits his own personal mandate.

It is no secret that Trudeau loves Communist China. And he has a perpetual love-in with those who seek to take over our country from within. He is on record as saying evangelical Christians are the worst part of Canadian society.

He praised the communist dictator Castro. He gives millions and millions of dollars tax payer money to other countries, even to groups like the Clinton Foundation, who gave 55 Million to the Aga Khan foundation! And yes, that the same Muslim person who operates a Muslim foundation that Trudeau lied about in order to become the first sitting Prime Ministry to be charged with ethic violations.

Trudeau went on the attack after the bogus claim by a Muslim girl. Yet when the story broke that it was all false and made up - Trudeau refused to apologize for his error.

Leaked intelligence documents show a greater threat of Islamic terror than the government admits. Trudeau demands you change your Christian beliefs if you still want to help youth in the summer in order for you to qualify for a grant.

He equated Canada - a democratic country that always strives for peace, justice, liberty and equality - to a closed regime with a sordid history!

There is so much more we could write but am sure you get the point. Canada is in Trouble! If you are Canadian and love this country, it's time to speak up. Unless we get vocal and get active, nothing recognizable will be left.
